

CHIEF MINING ENGINEER

You will have chance to engage in the following;

- Responsible for all aspects of engineering such as ventilation, rock mechanic, infrastructure designs, economic studies, budget preparation, mining sequence establishment, short and mid-term planning and other related tasks.
- Establish and maintain relationship with operations and technical staffs in order to develop a safe working environment and efficient production.
- Supervision of the engineering staff and technical staff.

You will have the following requirements;

- B.Sc. degree or higher, in mine engineering
- Solid experience in mine engineering: 10+ years
- Experience in team management is an asset
- Strong computer skills and functional with mine engineering software such as, AutoCAD, Promine, Excel and Word, etc.

Contact : Diana Tarantino dtarantino@brunelcanada.ca