

Exploration Manager

You will have the chance to engage in the following;

- Responsible for the design, implementation, and interpretation of exploration programs, including diamond drilling, for gold discovery.
- Experience working with gold mineralization in a production and/or exploration capacity. Responsible for property assessment and project generation.
- Supervision of geological and exploration staff

You will have the following requirements;

- B.Sc. degree, or higher, in geology or in geological engineering;
- Solid experience in exploration and/or mining geology: 10+ years experience
- Experience in team management is an asset;
- Strong computer skills and functional with exploration software including drill hole plotting and modelling software and GIS software

Please submit your resume to Diana Tarantino dtarantino@brunelcanada.ca